

City of Carlton Ordinance Number 171

An Ordinance amending Subsection 20 and deleting subsection 21 of Section 3 of City Ordinance Number 145 entitled "An Ordinance defining Nuisances and providing penalties for the Commission thereof and repealing inconsistent ordinances".

The City Council of the City of Carlton, Minnesota hereby ordains as follows.

Subsection 21 of Section 3 is hereby deleted. Subsection 20 of Section 3 is hereby amended to read;

(20.) The keeping, maintaining or harboring within the City of Carlton, any of the following animals;

A. Any animal or species prohibited by Minnesota or Federal law.

B. Any farm animals. "Farm Animals" means cattle, horses, ponies, mules, donkeys, sheep, goats, swine, rabbits and other animals that are typically or customarily kept for purposes of agriculture and/or farm animal husbandry.

C. Any poultry. "Poultry" means chickens, ducks, geese, pigeons, turkeys, guineafowl, peafowl, pheasants, quail, emus, ostriches, and all other domestic or non-domestic fowl.

D. Any non-domestic animal. Non-domestic is defined as any animal other than house cats (Felis Domesticus) dogs (Canis Familiaris) or any other creatures generally referred to as domestic pets and which must be kept at all times within the residence, including but not limited to birds, hamsters, lizards, non-poisonous snakes, fish, etc., which are generally docile in nature which can be reasonably expected to be safe to keep and not obviously capable of inflicting serious harm to any person.

E. Any domestic/wild Canidae Family crossbreeds, such as cross-breeds between dogs and coyotes, dogs and wolves, etc..

F. Any animal of a ferocious or vicious nature, habit or disposition or any animal wild by nature.

G. Any other animal which is not listed explicitly above but which can be reasonably defined by the terms in the hereby amended subsection 20 A through F.

This Ordinance becomes effective from and after its passage and publication. Passed by the City Council the 8th Day of December, 1998.
